§ 01

INSTITUTIONAL OVERVIEW

Jamaica Creative Council Limited was incorporated on 2 July 2026 under Section 22 of the Companies Act 2004 of Jamaica, as a company limited by guarantee. It is Jamaica's first incorporated national governing council for the creative economy — and the first institution of its kind among CARICOM member states. It is neither a charity nor a commercial enterprise. It is a national governing institution, established to register, certify, and represent creative practitioners, and to provide institutional standing before government, financiers, and international buyers.

§ 03

THE FIVE FOUNDING PRINCIPLES

Jamaica Creative Council is governed and guided by five founding principles, represented permanently in the five points of the Council’s official seal. These principles are constitutional, not aspirational — they define what the Council is, how it governs, and what it demands of itself and of every practitioner under its authority.

I. Sovereignty

Jamaica's right to govern its own creative economy.

II. Creativity

The living force the Council exists to protect and send into the world.

III. Excellence

The highest standard — for the institution and for every member.

IV. Legacy

Built to outlast every person who serves within it.

V. Faith

Anchored in Psalm 90:17, the Council's founding scripture.

“And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.”
